

HEART ILLS TOP KILLER HERE IN 1960

Forty-two per cent of all the deaths in Adams County in the first nine months of last year were due to heart disease, according to the latest figures compiled by the Division of Statistics and Records in the state Department of Health at Harrisburg.

Diseases of the heart also led all other killers in five other nearby counties in the state for the same period, the report shows.

Certificates of death filed with the department, compiled on a resident basis, showed that of the county's 339 deaths, 142—or more than four in every 10—were due to heart disease in some form.

CANCER KILLED 48

Adams County's heart disease death rate of 42 per cent was almost identical to that for Dauphin County while Lebanon County was high at a shade over 50 per cent. York's percentage was 39 per cent, Cumberland 44 per cent and Perry County 43 per cent.

N malignant tumors including cancer were the next highest cause of death in this county from January 1, 1960, through September 30 of that year, according to the state figures. There were 48 deaths from cancer in the county in the nine-month period, about a third as many as died of heart disease.

BIRTH RATE 21.3

One other leading cause of deaths was motor vehicles which was charged with seven deaths in this county in the same period.

The same set of vital statistics from Harrisburg showed that Adams County's birth rate for the same nine-month period was 21.3 per 1,000. In Dauphin County the birth rate was 21.4; Cumberland County, 21.2; Perry, 20.7; York, 21.7 and Lebanon, 22.3.

The birth rate in the city of Harrisburg was 22 per 1,000. In the city of York it was 23.1 and in the city of Lebanon, 23.3.

TWO THIRDS OF LOCAL TAXES GO TO SCHOOLS

Sixty-six per cent of all taxes raised in Adams County go to schools, according to a report by the Long Range Taxation Planning Committee of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association.

The report shows $2,081,000 in taxes paid in 1959. Of that amount $1,338,000 or 66 per cent went to the public school districts, $371,000 went to the townships and boroughs and $372,000 to the county and institution district. The percentage share of the taxpayer's dollar was 66 to the schools, 18 per cent to the townships and boroughs and 16 per cent to the county and institution district.

According to the report, the 21 townships during 1959 spent $246,000 of which 68 per cent went for highway construction. The amount was $167,000 of the total expenditure. Thirteen per cent, or $32,000, went for general government; four per cent, or $10,000, went for police and fire protection; 15 per cent, $37,000, was for miscellaneous purposes.

The report also showed that the state pays the lion's share of the cost to township road construction and maintenance. The townships spent $167,000 of locally collected money on the highways. The state at the same time provided $231,700 to the same townships toward road construction and maintenance.

Another portion of the report discussed the following:

Charge Four Owners Of Unlicensed Dogs

Dog Law Enforcement Officer James McDowell Friday reported he had brought charges against Kermit Slusser, Fairfield R. 1; Anna Zagnosky, Gettysburg R. 3; Alberta Marshall, Fairfield, and Mildred Rexroth, Fairfield, alleging they own unlicensed dogs. The charges were placed before Justice of the Peace Claude Straley, New Oxford.

The county treasurer's office reported today that it has issued 4,575 licenses so far this year. The county has about 7,000 dogs.

TO SPEAK ON SUBVERSION FRIDAY NIGHT

Congressman Gordon H. Scherer of Ohio, a member of the Committee on Un-American Activities, will speak on "Subversion: More Effective Than Nuclear Weapons?" at 8 o'clock Friday evening at Gettysburg College.

When the appropriation of $331,000 for the Committee on Un-American Activities was being debated in the House last week, Scherer struck back at his critics, who wanted to cut the appropriation 80 per cent, which the congressman charged was an attempt to kill off the committee.

Scherer charged further that the attacks on his committee were being made from hard core members of the Communist apparatus, by men who are dedicated to overthrowing the U.S. government. "One of the most notorious Communist-front organizations has a budget of $100,000 a year. Most of its budget is used to try to destroy the House Committee on Un-American Activities."

HAS LAW DEGREE

After graduating from high school in Cincinnati, Scherer attended the University of Cincinnati, received his law degree and was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1929. He served as assistant prosecuting attorney, Hamilton County, Ohio, from 1933-1940; director of safety, city of Cincinnati, 1943-44, and two terms as member of council of the city of Cincinnati, 1945-1949.

Elected to Congress in 1952, Scherer was re-elected in 1954, 1956, 1958 and 1960. He is currently ranking Republican member of both Un-American Activities Committee and the Public Works Committee.

1,650 Girl Scouters In County Face Busy Week

Next week will be a busy one for Adams County's 1,300 Girl Scouters and 350 adult leaders.

In 42 store windows throughout the county today some 58 Girl Scout troops were cooperating in placing window displays for Girl Scout Week which starts Sunday.

The windows will be based on the theme "Honor the Past—Serve the Future," the theme of the Girl Scouts "birthday years." This year marks the 49th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. The first Girl Scout troop was formed in Savannah, Ga., by Juliette Low March 12, 1912.

RALLY MARCH 18

Sunday each of the 58 troops of the county is scheduled to attend church as a group. The Scouts will wear their uniforms not only to church Sunday but during the week for school and at their regular troop meetings during the week. Saturday, March 18, the week-long program will conclude with the annual Adams County Girl Scout Rally starting at 10 a.m. in Gettysburg High School. "International Friendship" one of the subthemes for Girl Scout Week will be marked by the Adams County girls at their Juliette Low rally when they conduct as part of their program the reception of sums for the Juliette Low fund used for international promotion of Girl Scouting.

Mrs. M. Hardy Nichols, county Girl Scout executive, explained that the "birthday years" cycle of the Girl Scouts started last year on October 31, 1960, when the 100th birthday of Mrs. Low, founder of the USA Girl Scouts, was marked, and continues to October, 1963, thus also marking the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting.

Using the theme "Honor the Past—Serve the Future" the Girl Scouts are stressing during the period "encouragement for the girls to become familiar with their heritage and the origins of Girl Scouting."

"And programs designed to help them prepare for their future roles as homemakers, citizens and professional workers. Through our many Senior Aide programs we offer girls an opportunity to explore and test their availabilities in a broad variety of fields."

In connection with the "heritage" portion of the "Birthday Years" programs, the local Scouts will be in the near future be taking part in programs designed to familiarize them with the history of the area and nation," Mrs. Nichols said.

Government Troops Flee Before Rebel Laos Force

By JOHN RODERICK
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Leftist Pathet Lao forces, showing a new strength that threatens peace plans, sent government troops fleeing in two directions today from a showdown battle for the Sala Phou Koun Road junction.

The rebel assaults drove government defenders eight miles north to the high ground of neighboring Sala Phou Keng. Other royal troops abandoned the strategic road completely near Muong Kassy, 22 miles south.

The junction controls the north-south highway in Central Laos and lies less than 100 miles north of Vientiane and only 40 miles south of the royal seat of Luang Prabang.

The Pathet Lao guerrilla action apparently stalls the government's intended invasion drive into the Plaine Des Jarres, the rebel stronghold lying eastward along Queen Astrid Highway.

PARK SERVICE WILL CONTINUE 'FIELD GUIDES'

National Park policy officially favors continuation of the battlefield guides at Gettysburg, Park Superintendent James B. Myers told the Battlefield Guides' Association at its meeting Friday evening at the VFW Home, E. Middle St.

The park superintendent said that last fall when he was checking the files at the park office he was unable to find any statement on official policy of the National Park Service pertaining to the guides and as a result wrote the national director for a policy statement.

Myers said he has received a letter stating that it is National Park Service opinion that the guides are a "definite asset to the proper understanding of the battlefield and that it is the policy of the service to continue the guides indefinitely."

Myers also outlined to the group details about the new Visitors Center being constructed in Ziegler's Grove. Because of the bad weather during the winter months the opening of the new center will not take place until "somewhere within the two weeks before and two weeks after September 1," Myers said.

Work on the Cyclorama painting indicates it "will be truly a worthwhile addition to Gettysburg. Special lighting and the renovation will make it a beautiful and inspiring thing." The visitors center will "be designed to make the tourist desire to visit the battlefield and extend his stay here," Myers said.

TALKS TO PTA ON PROTECTION FOR CHILDREN

District Attorney Daniel Teeter spoke on "Protecting Our Children" at a meeting of the Keefauver PTA Thursday evening in the Keefauver Elementary School. He said, "Protection for our children can be divided into three phases: protection from bodily harm, moral dangers and mental or intellectual dangers."

"The best defense is a good offense," Teeter continued, "where it starts most importantly in the home where leadership should be provided for the children. To this is added the protection and leadership by our schools and other organizations."

FILM IS SHOWN

"Instead of doting on 'don't' the parents should accentuate the positive, live and develop with their children, causing the children to want to obey them and to follow them. We're often putting the cart before the horse to the extent that lawmakers and enforcers must choose the provision of taking over 'after,' whereas there should be some preventive motive 'before.'"

A film was shown entitled "The Dangerous Stranger," emphasizing some of the dangers that can possibly occur to children from strangers.

Following the film, there was a discussion on what can or should be done about a repeater of an immoral offense and the censoring of obscene literature in the community.

Members voted for a merger of the PTA units.

Mrs. N. T. Washburn presided. Mrs. George Fair sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Weaver on the piano. Refreshments were served.

Unemployed Negro Finds Bag Containing $240,000 In Cash

By GENE HANDSAKER
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A canvas bag containing $240,000 in cash fell out of a Brink's, Inc., armored truck into a street. A father out hunting a job found it and called the FBI.

"I thought if I kept that money I'd never be able to look my three kids in the face again," said Douglas William Johnson, 50.

When he works, which has been about half the time in the last six months, the neatly dressed, Negro maintenance man washes windows and hauls away rubbish. He averages, when working, about $100 a week.

Friday, with his wife Helen, 38, he drove to an apartment under construction where he had an appointment to see about cleaning up the debris. The man he was to see wasn't in.

IN FRONT OF CAR
As he drove away the canvas bag lay in the street in front of his car.

The Brink's truck had been taking it from the United California Bank to the Federal Reserve Bank. Fifteen money bags were piled high inside the truck.

One apparently slid off the pile, hit a horizontal inside handle that released the door and fell into the street. A guard inside the truck sat facing forward updating his records, and didn't notice the open door.

Driver Robert Downs, 42, saw it when he happened to glance back through a rear window in his compartment.

Gambler Is Fined $12,100 And Jailed

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Harold Hannan of Pittsburgh has been slapped with a $12,100 fine and a two-year jail sentence on charges of failing to obtain a $50 federal wagering license.

The sentence, handed down Friday by U.S. District Court Judge Joseph P. Willson, was one of the stiffest ever passed out in western Pennsylvania.

Internal Revenue agents said they arrested Hannan and four other men in a raid on Hannan's home last April.

The agents testified they seized records showing Hannan controlled a numbers operation which netted about $208,218 a year. The figure probably represented only 55 per cent of his play, agents added.

HIGHWAY FUND DEPLETED BY COLD AND SNOW

Severe weather this winter has exhausted the Pennsylvania Department of Highways' budget for winter traffic services—snow removal, purchase of materials to assure traction and rentals of equipment to buttress the department's regular array of snow fighting apparatus, Highway Secretary Park Martin said today.

The budget for winter traffic service for two years was set up early in 1959. It authorized $42,960,000 for the fiscal period June 1, 1959, until May 31, 1961, spanning two winters.

By February 9 of this year the department had spent or committed $42,663,000.

WIDESPREAD DAMAGE

That left a balance of $27,000, with a month and a half of winter weather ahead.

As if this weren't enough, warmer weather in mid-February posed another budget-straining problem for the department. Widespread damage to the state's 41,000-mile road system was noted as the winter thaw gained momentum.

No estimates were available, but it is probable that this year's road damage will exceed the extensive break-up of pavements experienced last spring.

Last winter, 1959-1960, the department spent $21,718,000 for snow removal, cinderling and so on. This winter $16,583,000 had been spent up to February 9.

SEEK MORE FUNDS

In addition to actual spending on winter traffic services the department has $4,362,000 committed but not yet paid for various aspects of the program.

Additional funds for winter traffic service costs were being made available from other accounts in anticipation of storms during March, a traditional bad weather month.

Winter traffic service is the most costly single item in the department's road maintenance budget.

240 PERSONS AT BANQUET

Ralph Williams, executive committee member of the National Interfraternity Conference and past president of the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, addressed the annual Interfraternity pledge banquet at the Hotel Gettysburg, Friday evening, on the principles of the National Interfraternity Conference and how it relates to the undergraduate fraternity system. Over 240 persons were in attendance.

Fred Fielding, of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, and IFC president at Gettysburg College, was the toastmaster. He introduced Mrs. Willard S. Paul, Atty. Eugene Hartman, president of the Alumni Interfraternity Conference and other guests.

Fielding also introduced Gen. Willard S. Paul, president of Gettysburg College, who welcomed the pledges and stressed the value of the fraternity and obligations of the pledges. He said he has two years to serve before he will become a 50-year member of the Sigma Nu fraternity.

The invocation was given by Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church. William Fitzkee of Tau Kappa Epsilon led the singing of the National Anthem. The dinner closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

FAIR WEATHER IN MOST AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair weather covered most of the country today but rain, snow and snow flurries continued to plague some northern areas.

A succession of lows off the Pacific Coast maintained showery weather from northern California northward with scattered snow flurries in the interior. Snow also fell in portions of the Upper Great Lakes, southwest Lower Michigan and widely scattered areas of the Northeast.

More rain or snow is expected during the day in the upper lakes with an area of scattered showers spreading from the Lower Ohio Valley southward to northeast Texas late in the day.

Scattered showers or snow flurries were forecast for the central Appalachians with more rain due in the Pacific Northwest.

Fair weather covered most of the rest of the nation with readings generally in the 40s and 50s south of a freezing line extending from the northern Rockies eastward to the Great Lakes, down into the Ohio Valley and eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

HAVANA (AP)—American adventurer William A. Morgan was condemned to death today by the Castro revolutionary regime he gave up his U. S. citizenship to help bring to power.

A military tribunal ordered Morgan, 31, a soldier of fortune from Toledo, Ohio, shot by a firing squad for treason against his adopted country.

Morgan's Cuban defense lawyer promptly filed an appeal. He said "hope is not lost" and that he expects "good results." But military appeal courts rarely overrule sentences handed down by revolutionary tribunals.

Pay Some Schools

Late Next Week

HARRISBURG (AP)—Subsidies due fourth-class school districts will not be paid until the end of next week at the earliest, a state budget official said today.

David R. Baldwin, state budget secretary, said "a good deal of money is due next week" and "I'm pretty sure the state will make the payments then."

About 1,700 fourth-class school districts are due their semiannual state subsidies by the first of this month. The administration previously announced that it would be able to pay only about half of the $60 million in subsidies due the smaller school districts.

The payments normally are made the first of March. However, the administration has said a reduced balance in the treasury would prevent full payment.

The state hopes to settle the full amount next month when business taxes are received.

PLEAD GUILTY TO BEATING, BURNING MAN

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Four Fayette County men, accused of torturing and beating another man, have pleaded guilty to charges of assault and battery.

Jack Rusko, 30, and his 22-year-old brother, James, both of Leith, and Robert Sisler, 63, and Jack Shaffer, 18, both of Uniontown, entered the pleas Friday, bringing their week-long trial to an abrupt end.

Judge Eustace H. Bane of Fayette County Criminal Court threw out charges of simple assault and battery, assault with intent to maim, assault with intent to kill and mayhem against the four.

The jurist ruled that those four charges did not apply in the case on the basis of evidence presented by the prosecution.

ABDUCTING CHARGE

The four were accused of abducting James Brownfield, 27, of Haydentown, Fayette County, from the home of relatives last January and taking him to a shanty.

Brownfield testified the four beat him into unconsciousness three times, burned his back with cigarettes and a car lighter and held his arm against a hot coal stove. Several times during the trial, Brownfield removed his shirt and showed the court where he had been burned.

He also said he was hit with a flashlight and a chair leg, had his leg twisted, his hair cut raggedly and was seared with a hot poker.

CITE STATEMENT

The prosecution also introduced a statement which it claimed James Rusko had given city and county detectives after his arrest.

According to the statement, Rusko and the others decided to beat Brownfield during a drinking party. The statement quoted Rusko as saying Brownfield has "stole some things" from Sisler, had "bothered" Shaffer's sister, had not paid back $2 borrowed from Jack Rusko and had "wrecked" the transmission in James Rusko's car.

The four entered their guilty plea just after the prosecution rested its case. They will be sentenced later.

Gettysburg Schools Report

TEN YEARS OF INDUSTRIAL ARTS AT GETTYSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Industrial arts at Gettysburg is a requirement in the junior high for all boys of the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Grades with the exception of those enrolled in the agriculture program at the Ninth Grade level and above.

During these three years the shop work is divided into six areas, which change for each student at the beginning of each school semester. These changeovers are arranged in sequence until all areas have been explored by each student.

Shop facilities (with dates of installation): Woodworking, 1951-52; shop drawing, 1951-52; sheet metal, 1952-53; art metal, 1953-54; leathercraft, 1953-54; wrought iron, 1953-54; plastics, 1955-56; mechanical drafting, 1955-56; graphic arts (printing), 1960-61, and wood shop, Lincoln School, 1960-61.

The above shop activities are organized into instructional units of study and grouped to obtain continuity and provide student progress.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT

Due to the increased student enrollment in our schools this year, a small workshop has been provided for the Seventh Grade boys in the Lincoln School. The Seventh Grade students receive instruction in the safe use of basic hand-working tools and simple machines such as the jig saw, drill press and sanders. Additional craft work is done in the leather and metal enameling areas.

Shop planning units in sketching, size and shape descriptions, measurements, parts analysis, materials, safety and management systems are part of the Seventh Grade system.

The Eighth Grade students receive instruction in general metals and plastics. The metal work involves project making from materials, such as iron, sheet steel, tin, aluminum, copper, brass and German silver. Plastics are formed with hand tools, simple machines, air and vacuum processes.

BEGIN PRINTING

Shop planning units in the Eighth Grade emphasize shop measurements and costs of materials and machine safety.

The Ninth Grade program offers the student an opportunity to repeat either wood, metal, or plastics for a more concentrated and specialized study with more emphasis on the machine processes. One semester of the Ninth Grade program consists of nine weeks of introductory mechanical drawing providing exercises in the techniques and problems encountered by the designer, engineer, architect and interpreter of the mechanically drawn language of the draftsman.

Each student is equipped with instruments and materials of the professional draftsman in order to carry out his drafting room assignments.

Beginning this year the Ninth Grader has the opportunity to learn printing procedures in letterpress work and it is done over a nine-week period.

OFFER SCULPTURING

The senior high student who completes the junior high program of studies in Industrial Arts now qualifies for advanced studies in one of four major areas each year which carry credit as an elective subject. Advanced machine woodworking joinery methods, graphic arts, general metals and basic mechanical drawing are offered Tenth Graders.

Eleventh Grade students may elect machine metals, related wood turning, sculpturing and plastics, graphic arts and advanced mechanical drawing.

The 12th Grade offers advanced studies in wood with emphasis on the building trades, general metals, graphic arts and architectural drawing.

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITIES

The above studies in senior high provide unique opportunities for both the science, engineering or technical college destined student as well as the noncollege destined student.

All instruction in the Industrial Arts department is conducted by Jack Corbin, department head, and Allan R. Gray and C. R. Leader.

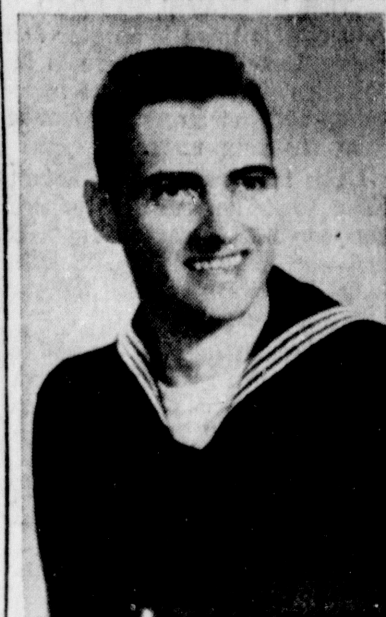

Facilities in the newly planned high school are being provided for advanced work in graphic arts and mechanical drawing.

PROVIDE CLUBS
Special school services are being provided by the teachers and students in the Industrial Arts department through the Shop Service Club, Stage Craft Club and the Print Shop.

Some services are school repair and maintenance, teaching aids and display devices made by service club members under the direction of Allan Gray. Play set designs and construction are provided by the Stage Craft Club crew under the direction of Mr. Corbin.

A variety of school forms, tickets, programs and other miscellaneous printed matter used by various school departments have vided the $3,520,000 spent by the schools in 1958-59 school year into percentages. $1,983,000 or 56 per cent went for instruction; nine per cent or $320,000 for auxiliary agencies, 18 per cent or $627,000 for debt service, 13 per cent or $448,000 went for operation of the schools and four per cent or $142,000 for general control. The report noted that it took the $3,520,000 figure of overall expenditures rather than the $1,383,000 in local taxation levied by the schools for percentage division "because of the complicated state-local reimbursement relationships."

The breakdown of county and institution district expenditures does not list mounts but merely percentages. Of the $318,000 spent from the county fund, 33 per cent went for administration and general government, 31 per cent for corrections, 21 per cent for judicial and 15 per cent for miscellaneous. Of the $145,000 spent from the institution district fund, 59 per cent went for the county home, 28 per cent for Child Welfare, eight per cent for administration and five per cent miscellaneous.

WANTS MORE INFORMATION ON APPOINTEE

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's controversial nominee for governor of the Virgin Islands, Raphael M. Paiewonsky, faces more critical questioning today before the Senate Insular Affairs Committee.

Chairman Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., said there is a possibility committee action may be delayed until some committee members gather "supplemental information" in a trip to the islands later this month.

The nominee is Virgin Islands-born, a leading industrialist and rum maker. Paiewonsky, 53, has been an active figure in the islands' Democratic party circles.

MAY HOLD UP ACTION

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., was first to speak Friday in opposition to the nomination. He said he will ask the committee to hold up action pending an "on the spot investigation" of Paiewonsky's business operations.

Anderson told a reporter today that some members of his committee already have been assigned to visit the Virgin Islands March 22-27 and "it may be that they will be asked to gather supplemental information before the committee acts—that is up to the committee."

Paiewonsky testified Friday that to avoid any conflict of interests he and his family are selling the A. H. Riise Chemical & Distillers Corp. to the Schenley Corp. and divesting themselves of other holdings which might conflict with his serving as governor and as a member of the board of the ROTC Grads To Be Called Into Army In June: ROTC students who will graduate from colleges and universities, including Gettysburg college, and commissioned in the Organized Reserve Corps in June will be ordered into active military service, the army announced today. The army estimated that the contemplated order would affect approximately 10,000 students.

The plan calls for ordering into active service those who were deferred from Selective Service under an ROTC deferment agreement as well as those members of the Organized Reserve Corps commissioned from the ROTC who did not execute an ROTC deferment and who have had less than two years prior active federal service as officers, warrant officers or enlisted men. These students may volunteer for immediate service upon graduation, if they desire.

Teachers Are Asking Bonus Of $150 Each: A petition from school teachers of the Gettysburg joint school system asking for a $150 "cost of living" bonus will be placed before the joint school board at its March meeting this evening at the Gettysburg high school building, it was learned today.

With about 65 teachers in the system, the cost of the proposed bonus would be about $9,750.

Traffic Jam Corrected On Town Street: Double parking in the first block of Chambersburg street Sunday morning was practically nonexistent during the hours of church services in Christ Lutheran church and while motorists were stopping at the Gettysburg News Agency for their Sunday newspaper.

Pursuant to a new regulation announced Saturday by Burgess William G. Weaver, "no parking" bags were placed on seven meters, three in front of the church and four in front of the news agency. In addition, two police officers, Daniel Miller and Raymond E. Menges, were stationed to see that there was no double parking.

Committee On Friendly Town Project Named: Mrs. Clark Smith, West Broadway, will head the Adams county "Friendly Town" committee for Adams county, which will bring a number of underprivileged children from New York city here this summer for two-week vacations. The committee was announced today by Alice Defoe, representing the New York Herald Tribune, which each year sponsors vacations for children from tenement districts in New York City.

10 Frats Hold Annual Dinner Saturday Night: William Musselman, Norristown, retiring president of the chapter, was awarded the Charles H. Smith cup as the outstanding Phi Gam from Xi Chapter at the annual Norris Pig dinner, Saturday night, at the fraternity house, college campus. More than 135 alumni and undergraduates heard section chief Graduate Harvey praise Xi Chapter as "the group which causes me less worry than any other." Cecil F. Dawson, secretary of the Board of Archons, and president of Dixie Cup Co., pleaded with the graduates to return to the house as often as possible. He told the undergraduates, "You have a better chance than the graduates had when they were in school because Phi Gamma Delta is a better fraternity today."

Girl Scouts At Rally Saturday: One hundred and seventy-five Adams county Girl Scouts participated in the Juliette Low rally held Saturday in the Gettysburg high school gymnasium. Today is the 39th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting by Miss Low. The morning program included group singing led by Mrs. Joseph Baker and games were in charge of the Misses Sue Hunsberger and Josie Slifer, students at Gettys-

Today's Talk

THE UNTRAVELED ROAD
In change there is an ever and constant power, and there is inspiration in its manner of application and the largest amount of ever changing news.

I like the suggestion by Robert Frost that he once introduced into one of his poems. He said that when he came to some cross roads he always selected the one "least traveled."

All through life we experience changes and a selection of roads. It is wise if we can select the one "least traveled." This is the way to knowledge and learning.

Valuable thoughts are hiding behind the roads that have been passed by.

It takes daring to seek out untraveled roads. Then it takes faith to pursue them. There are always interests right on the road that you might never think existed there.

Alertness is one of the great traits learned every day that we are on earth, and as we go on to bigger and better things in this life of ours.

But we must keep our interests where we can put our hands on them—and we must keep our courage alive. There is where the power resides.

We must keep our courage kindled. And we must be unafraid to travel the untraveled road!

AN OLD FRIEND
I met an old friend yesterday, A comrade from the faraway, And glad was I his smile to see, For this is what he brought to me:

The schoolhouse from the Long Ago,
The boys and girls I used to know;
The little home on Sibley Street
Where all the youngsters used to meet;

The games we played, the things we did,
The secret places where we hid,
The pranks of all our youthful crew,
The punishments we sometimes drew.

A living book, he seemed to me,
Fresh come from memory's bender;
A book whose leaves were edged with gold
So many merry tales he told.

Who meets an old friend on the way
Meets all the joys of yesterday;
The laughter which he used to know
And all the charm of Long Ago.

EAST BERLIN—The borough council held its monthly meeting Tuesday with President Charles Fahs presiding. Twenty-one persons were present including the burgess, firemen, Engineer Saylor and Attorney Spicer.

Homer Bloodworth said that the lane leading to his property at Conewago Creek was in bad condition from North Ave. to the athletic field at the high school, being damaged by the contractor during the construction of East Berlin Shoe Factory. He said the shoe is using the same road. The burgess and engineer were instructed to investigate. William Shafer inquired what council could do about North and Fissel alleys. Robert Warner asked for stones on Locust St. extended and the street committee was instructed to investigate these requests.

The fire company was asked that the siren be repaired and asked that a ramp be built for fire protection in Conewago Creek on the Diehl property. The firemen also asked the permission from the Kuhn estates to brush a road through the woods so that fire apparatus can go to Conewago Creek when needed. They reported they are about to purchase a new fire truck with a 1,000-gallon capacity.

Saylor presented a contract between the borough and W. K. Hood for engineering work on remodeling the water system. Policeman Bechtel asked expense money of $20 a month, or that a car radio be installed. He was granted a $20 month increase and he will install the radio at his own expense.

The secretary was instructed to purchase four no parking signs to be used in East Wagner and Second Alleys.

The council transferred $500 from the water account to the general account.

TOP CAT WILL STAR IN TV'S NEW CARTOON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here is the cast of one of next season's most promising TV series:

Top Cat, Choo Choo, Brain, Benny the Ball, Spook and Fancy-Fancy.

Sound like a strange bunch of cats? They are. But they will be adding more gold to the already booming cartoon firm of Hanna-Barbera, now the world's biggest.

The new series is titled after its star, "Top Cat," and was snapped up in a hurry by ABC for showing in the prime time of Wednesday at 8:30.

DESCRIBED BY BARBERA

As described by Joe Barbera: "Top Cat lives in an alley behind a bowling center and next to a policeman's call box. The policeman is Officer Dibble who is always admonishing him about using the phone. We see Top Cat as a kind of Sergeant Bilko. He's always dreaming up outlandish schemes for his fellow cats."

The sale of the new series adds more strain to the bulging walls of the Hanna-Barbera studio, outgrown after six months of occupancy. "In TV you keep creating new shows, expecting your old ones to be dropped," said Barbera. "Then we sell the new ones, but the old ones are renewed. So we have to keep expanding."

It's a nice kind of problem. But the team has conquered others in the past, including what to do when they were abruptly dropped from MGM's cartoon studio. They turned to TV and sold a show called "Ruff and Ready." They still had something to learn.

"We aimed the show at kids, and that was a mistake," said Barbera. "We still haven't gotten our money out of it after three years. For our next show, we took an adult approach."

The next show was "Huckleberry Hound," and it drew a wide and rabid audience. It was followed by "Quick Draw McGraw." This season Hanna-Barbera leaped into the top nighttime ratings with "The Flintstones," a domestic comedy set in prehistoric times.

For all their bright ideas, the firm's operation couldn't have succeeded without a different approach to animation. "It's something that goes back to the early days of cartoons," Barbera said. "They used to be a caricature of human action. Then Disney began photographing live actors and copying the film to make the cartoon prince move like a real man. The result: Cartoons weren't funny any more."

"We've gone back to the caricature of human action. It's cheaper—you don't have to draw so many pictures. And it's funnier."

LENTEN PRAYER FOR TODAY from Go With God BY JIM BISHOP

Thomas a Kempis (1380-1471) was born in Kempen, Prussia, and entered an Augustinian monastery in 1407. He was ordained in 1413 and chosen superior of the monastery in 1425. Tradition has assigned to him the authorship of the book "The Imitation of Christ," a devotional classic which has appealed to Christians everywhere for centuries. Biographers of St. Ignatius of Loyola say no other work contributed so much to his spiritual development as Thomas a Kempis' "The Imitation of Christ."

O LORD my God, be not thou far from me; my God, have regard to help me; for there have risen up against me sundry thoughts and great fears afflicting my soul. How shall I pass through unhurt? How shall I break them to pieces? This is my hope, my one only consolation, to flee unto Thee in every tribulation, to trust in Thee, to call upon Thee from my inmost heart, and to wait patiently for Thy consolation. Amen.

FAVOR TITANS IN CAGE MEET

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Westminster College of New Wilmington, Pa., and Northern Michigan College have been made the early targets in the National Intercollegiate (NAIA) basketball tournament beginning Monday.

Coach Buzz Ridl's Westminster Titans are seeded No. 1 in the 32-team tournament that offers one of college basketball's most rugged tests.

Northern Michigan, coached by Stan Albeck, is seeded second and heads the lower bracket.

Westminster has a 20-3 record, including two one-sided victories over Pittsburgh. The Titans have good height and expert shooters.

Northern Michigan, which lists Michigan State of the Big Ten among its 20 victims, was beaten only by Bradley and Mankato (Minn.).

Eight first round games are scheduled Monday and Tuesday. The championship will be decided Saturday night.

Westminster and Northern Michigan both play their first games Tuesday night. Northern Michigan plays Carson-Newman (29-7) and Westminster meets Arkansas State (19-6).

TWO TIED IN MIAMI OPEN

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Mickey Wright, who has a new approach to golf, says she's undisturbed by Jo Ann Prentice tying her for the lead in the Miami Women's Open.

The two shot one-over-par 71s Friday and carried a two-stroke edge over the field into today's second round of the 54-hole $7,500 event on the 6,320-yard Miami Springs course.

Miss Wright is a frequent tournament winner. Miss Prentice never has won a tournament in five years as a pro.

Miss Wright, explaining her new approach, said last summer at Dallas she went to pro Earl Stewart Jr. to have her golfing game overhauled.

"Earl didn't change my swing as much as he did my attitude," she said. "He told me to play one shot at a time, and avoid pressure."

Barbara Greene of Eastman, Ga., appearing in her fourth pro tournament, shot a 73 Friday to take third place.

Patty Berg and Barbara Romack had 74s for fourth place. In fifth at 75 were Marilyn Smith and Muriel Mackenzie.

LAST MINUTE APPEAL SAVES DOOMED MAN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An eleventh hour appeal saved 23-year-old Joseph Ernst from the electric chair next week.

The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Friday stayed the scheduled execution "pending action upon (Ernst's) appeal or until the further order of this court."

The decision by the three-judge court was unanimous. It came five hours after Ernst's lawyer, Chester Appy, of Red Bank, N. J., had told the court that his client was denied a fair trial because of inadequate representation by defense counsel.

Appy was hired by the New Jersey Society for the Abolition of Capital Punishment after Ernst was convicted of killing 17-year-old Joan Connor on March 15, 1959.

Appy also argued that the death penalty recommended by the jury which convicted Ernst was unconstitutional.

TO HEAR APPEAL

The court will hear the appeal on a day not yet set.

Ernst, of Camden, N. J., admitted killing Miss Connor while she was babysitting in a Camden home. He said, in his defense, that he had shot her in anger because she had refused to talk to him and had slammed the door in his face.

The circuit court stay was the first legal victory for Ernst in his fight to have his penalty reduced to life imprisonment.

In opposing Appy's petition, Charles A. Rizzi, first assistant district attorney of Camden County, argued that Ernst had been "quite adequately and quite capably represented by Joseph DeLuca at his trial."

MANNHEIM, Germany (AP)—The crew of the 390-ton river boat Europa tied up at Neuludheim, near Mannheim, Wednesday night and went ashore for a beer. When they returned the boat was gone.

A 21-year-old workman had gone aboard, lifted the anchor and drifted down the Rhine. The Europa banged into several other boats and hit a pontoon bridge, springing two leaks, before it nosed into the river bank 7 miles below Neuludheim.

Police said the hijacker is being held for a psychiatric examination.

Owens Is Fined; Bolts Phillies

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Pitcher Jim Owens has left the Philadelphia Phillies for his home in Midland, Pa.—miffed after being fined again.

John Quinn, general manager of the Phillies, said Friday Owens came into his room, demanding to be traded.

"He had been causing a disturbance in the hotel," Quinn said as he announced the fine. He did not say how much it would be.

Owens, who won 4 and lost 14 last year, said, "I figure I don't fit into their plans and I want out."

"I don't know why they didn't trade me during the winter. It looks as though there won't be any room for me as a stringer. And I'm not about to become a relief pitcher."

The 27-year-old right hander quit the team last season after being fined $600 for an alleged brawl outside a Clearwater bar. He returned later and returned.

FATALLY INJURED

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Lawrence Franks, 40, of Smithfield, was fatally injured Friday in a one-car crash on the South Water Street Extension near Masontown.

Police said the door of Franks' auto apparently flew open just before the car sideswiped a utility pole. He was crushed between the pole and the car door, officers said.

A short time before, according to police, Franks' car had smacked into a parked auto in Masontown.

A friend of the movie star said the complication was not serious enough to put Miss Taylor back on the danger list, "but her doctors are taking no chances."

Miss Taylor, 29, has been under treatment at the hospital since she was stricken with the pneumonia a week ago. She was twice on the point of death before she began responding to treatment.

She was able to dispense with an electronic breathing aid Friday for the first time in six days.

Elizabeth Taylor Suffers Relapse

LONDON (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor suffered a slight setback in her recovery from double pneumonia early today, and doctors were summoned hurriedly to her hospital room.

Mountaineers Rally To Nip Virginia Union Five 83-80 In NCAA Regional; Face Albright Lions This Evening

After spotting Virginia Union a 197 lead early in the first half, the Mount St. Mary's College basketball team came back strong in the second half to edge the champions of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association 83-80 Friday night at Albright College, Reading, to advance to the Eastern Regional final of the NCAA college playoffs.

Tonight the Mountaineers meet Albright, easy 85-67 winner over Fairfield, Conn., in the other game of Friday's twin bill, for the eastern honors and the right to take part in championship tournament at Evansville, Ind., next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

UNION WEAKENS

Virginia Union, 21-5 following the loss, started to weaken after its fast start but managed to hold a 39-33 lead at half time.

Coach Jim Phelan's Mountaineers moved ahead early in the second half 42-41 on a tapped goal by Dick Talley after Jack O'Reilly had missed a free toss.

Another goal by Talley, one by Jerry Savage and still another by Talley ran the score to 48-41.

The Mount then built up a 14-point margin at 68-54 with eight minutes of play remaining on some fine all-around work.

Virginia Union went into an all-court press and nearly pulled the game from the fire.

O'REILLY ICES VICTORY

The Mountaineers' lead slowly melted and finally it was but one point with six seconds remaining. O'Reilly iced the game for the Emmitsburg squad with a pair of goals at that point.

It was the 12th straight victory for Mt. St. Mary's and skyrocketed their overall season record to 24-3.

Scoring was evenly balanced for the winners with O'Reilly netting 18, Talley and Dick Saylor 17 each, Savage 16, and Dave Maloney 14.

Jackie Jackson of the losers topped all scorers with 29 and Warren Spraggins added 17.

WARNER SETS SEVEN G-BURG CAGE RECORDS

Ron Warner, York, one of the outstanding scoring leaders in the history of Gettysburg College, paced the Bullet basketball team the past season by scoring over 600 points for the second straight year.

Warner finished the season with 623 tallies in 25 contests for a 24.9 average. He registered 227 of 447 goals for 51 per cent and 169 of 219 free throws for 77 per cent. Warner scored an even 600 points his sophomore year. Warner is only a junior and stands 5'10" and for the second straight year was runner-up in the rebound department with 178 grabs.

During his short two-year career, Warner holds all but four individual season and career records at Gettysburg. The season marks established by the York native are most points scored, 623; most field goals made, 228; most fouls made, 169; highest field average, .511, and highest per game average, 24.9. For a career slate, Warner holds, most points scored, 1,223, and most field goals made, 455.

PARKER SECOND

Bob Parker, Yeaton, finished second to Warner in the scoring department with 385 points and a 15.4 average. Bill Fitzkee, Mt. Wolf, took the rebounding honors for the second straight year with 188 grabs.

As a team, Gettysburg concluded the season with one of the finest records in its history, registering a 19-6 slate. The Bullets held their opponents to 1,570 points and a 62.8 average per game. Gettysburg scored 1,804 points during the season and averaged 72.2 per contest.

LIKE LAST YEAR

This is akin to Ohio State, the defending national collegiate champion, and Cincinnati, who won third place a year ago, being knocked off in their opening games in the big NCAA competition next week. California and NYU, who finished second and fourth last year, are not in the NCAA tourney this time.

California came through with a surprise 69-57 victory over Southern California, the Big Five champs, in one of the four big college games Friday night. Oregon kept alive its hopes of making the NCAA tourney by nipping Oregon State 54-52. Washington took Idaho in overtime 70-65 and UCLA beat Stanford 69-55 in the other major games.

Prairie View, which finished No. 1 in the final small college Associated Press poll, came through with a 79-68 triumph over Superior (Wis.). Tonight the Texans face a formidable South Dakota State team in the final of the Midwest Regional at Brookings, S. D.

ENDS REGULAR SEASON

Ohio State winds up its regular season today against Illinois and the Buckeyes are hopeful of clinching up their 29th straight triumph. In other major games today that winds up the regular season, Utah and Colorado State Univ. play for the Skyline title and an NCAA berth, Xavier of Ohio and Chicago Loyola meet with the winner going to the NCAA. Arizona State Univ. and New Mexico State play for the Border Conference crown and a chance to play in the NCAA. Kentucky, which beat Vanderbilt Thursday for the right to play in the NCAA, goes after its 11th straight victory in a game at Chicago against Marquette.

QUEBEC BIDS FOR 2ND PLACE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Quebec Aces, riding the crest of a five-game winning streak, are making a strong, belated bid for a playoff berth in the American Hockey League.

The Aces continued their surge by breaking a 3-all tie with a three-goal outburst in the final period and beating fifth-place Cleveland 6-3 Friday night.

The victory left the Aces only two points behind the Barons and kept them within four points of Rochester, 11-4 winner over Providence, in the struggle for the final playoff spot. In the night's other game, Hershey whipped Buffalo 5-4.

ONLY WEEK LEFT

With little more than a week left in the regular season, only seven points separate second-place Buffalo and sixth-place Quebec. Buffalo has 65, Hershey 64, Rochester 62, Cleveland 60 and Quebec 58.

Jackie LeClair and Claude Labrosse paced the Quebec attack with two goals each while Bob Bailey and Bob Barlow contributed single tallies. Cal Gardner scored two for the Barons with rookie Jules Gagnon getting the other.

Rochester equaled its highest output in history with victory No. 10 in 11 meetings with the cellar-dwelling Reds. Gerry Ehmman scored three goals and Wally Boy and Dick VanImpe contributed two to the Americans attack.

Claude LaForge shot the game-winner for the Bears in the final two minutes as Buffalo lost its fifth straight. It was LaForge's second goal of the contest. Phil Maloney scored twice for the Bisons.

Wilt Passes 3,000 Mark For Season

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Man-and-a-half Wilt Chamberlain, who smashed National Basketball Association records last year as a disgruntled rookie, has pulverized them a little finer this year in a merrier mood.

The 7-foot-1 Philadelphia Warrior was in good humor Friday night in a 32-point performance that gave him a record 3,016 for the season but didn't keep his team from losing to Detroit 120-103.

After setting the season standard at 2,707 last year, Chamberlain threatened to quit the NBA. Laughing and joking with the other Warriors after Friday night's game, he told a newsman:

"I was awfully misquoted last year—I wasn't badly mistreated."

Wilt has one more chance to add his assorted regular season records in a game at St. Louis tonight.

SAY CHAMP CAN NAME ROUND TO WIN BIG BOUT

By MURRAY ROSE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The feeling seems almost general at this resort area that Floyd Patterson can almost name the round in which he'll blast Ingemar Johansson in their third heavyweight title fight Monday night.

The expressions of solid confidence in the re-crowned champion's flashing fists is strikingly reminiscent of the aura of invincibility that seemed to surround Patterson before his first fight with the Swedish invader in 1959.

There are several exceptions to this feeling of overconfidence this time, and notably—Patterson himself.

REMEMBER 1ST FIGHT

"I remember vividly what happened in that first fight," said Patterson. "Ingemar has a terrific right and who should know better than me? I respect him greatly."

Floyd became the first dethroned heavyweight king ever to regain the title when he flattened Johansson in the fifth round last June.

The third fight will be the last in the series, said Floyd.

"I wouldn't want a return if I lost," he said. "There are other contenders who have been waiting a long time. The loser should step back and give the other contender a chance."

WILL FIGHT LISTON

Asked if he would fight Sonny Liston, the No. 1 contender from Philadelphia, if he beats Johansson, Patterson replied: "Sure I'll fight Liston. But he'd have to get rid of some of the people around him."

The champion declined to name them.

The promoters of the Monday night title fight, Feature Sports, Inc., said business was picking up at the boxoffice. Bill Fugazy, the president, said he was hopeful of grossing between $500,000 and $600,000.

CHICKEN FEED

As far as the fighters are concerned that's chicken feed compared to what they'll make on the closed circuit telecast, the movies and radio. The "live" gate will bring each fighter about $100,000.

But Irving Kahn, president of the TelePrompTer, which handles the supplementary rights, estimates that Patterson will get close to a million dollars and Johansson a little less from his company.

Kahn estimated the TV, movies and radio receipts would be over $3 million and possibly close to $4 million.

Outside of holding press conferences Friday, the fighters did little else. They plan just to limber up, run and rest until fight time Monday night.

PALMER LEADS SECOND ROUND IN PENSACOLA

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Arnold Palmer, seeking a repeat victory in the $20,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament, knocked seven strokes off par in the second round to grab the lead at the halfway mark.

Palmer's 73-65—138 going into the third round gave him a one-stroke margin over Gary Player and Dave Ragan.

Player, a South African now playing out of Langhorne, Pa., stood at 75-64—139. The 64 was the best round of the tournament so far and matched Player's all-time competitive low. He turned in an eagle, seven birdies and a bogey in scoring 64.

4 TIED AT 140

Ragan, of Orlando, Fla., hit 15 greens and birdied three holes en route to a 69 to go with his opening round 70 over the par 36—109 score.

Four tied at 140. They were George Bayer, South Pasadena, Calif., 70-70; Walker Inman, Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., the first round leader, 68-72; Don Fairfield, Jacksonville, Fla., 72-68, and Tommy Bolt, Crystal River, Fla., 72-68.

Tied at 141 were Jimmy Clark, Long Beach, Calif., 70-71; Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., 71-70, and Gay Brewer, Crystal River, 73-68.

OTHER SCORES

Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla.; Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y.; Freddie Haas, New Orleans; Tommy Jacobs, Bermuda Dunes, Calif., and Bob Keller, Eglin AFB, were deadlocked at 142.

Those failing to survive the 149 cutoff point included Howie Johnson, Lemont, 150; Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif., 152; Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La., 152, and Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn., 153.

The field was cut to the low 61 pros and 10 amateurs for the final two rounds.

Lehigh Wrestlers Make Semifinals

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Favored Lehigh has advanced seven of a possible nine men into the semifinals today of the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament.

The Engineers held onto their lead Friday night, winning a total of 26 points. Behind them were Rutgers with 17 and Pitt and Penn State with 15 each.

Rutgers and Pitt placed five men each in today's round, and Navy and Penn State four men each.

Curt Alexander of Lehigh, the favorite in the 137-pound class, was upset by Mike Harmon of Navy.

Two second-seeded wrestlers also were upset—Bob Gunst of Lehigh in the 147-pound class, and Mike Leta of Rutgers in the 137-pound class.

HOWARD SAYS HE'S CATCHER

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Elston Howard, who has had to play second fiddle to Yogi Berra for the past five years, minced no words today when he declared he would be the New York Yankees' No. 1 catcher this year.

"I understand Yogi will do a lot of playing in the outfield," said Howard. "In that case, I'm going to be the regular catcher. I know that (John) Blanchard is a good hitter and he did a fine job in the World Series, but this is going to be my year. I just feel it. And it's about time."

This is tall talk for a fellow who last year fretted through his poorest season in the majors since he joined the Yankees in 1955. Elie batted only .245, the low point of his career, hit only six home runs and batted in only 39 runs.

"HAVE NO EXCUSES"

"I have no excuses," he said. "It was just a terrible year for me. But I know I'm capable of much better. I know, playing regularly, I can hit around .290 to .300, with 20 home runs and about 90 runs batted in."

Howard actually was behind the plate last year in more games than Berra. The 32-year-old St. Louisian caught 91 games to 63 for Yogi but it was Berra who caught the first two games of the World Series. Howard got in only when Yogi was shifted to the outfield. A broken finger put an end to Elie's World Series activities and gave Blanchard an opportunity to be one of the Yankee stars.

PIRATES PICK UP PACE LEFT LAST SEASON

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pittsburgh Pirates 10, Visitors 9. That was the score when the Pirates won the World Series over the New York Yankees last Oct. 13.

And that was the score Friday when the Pirates opened the spring exhibition schedule at Ft. Myers, Fla., against the Cincinnati Reds.

The winning run in the seventh World Series game was Bill Mazeroski's ninth-inning homer.

The winner Friday came home on Dick Schofield's ninth-inning single.

RESULT UNNERVING

The result must have been unnerving for the rest of the National League teams who open their exhibition season today along with eight American League teams, including those representing the new league cities of Los Angeles and Minnesota.

Detroit and Chicago got a jump on the other AL clubs Friday in a 14-7 game won by the Tigers at Sarasota.

And fine pitching performances by a pair of question-marks, the Tigers' Ray Narleski and Don Mossi, gave added hope to the usual group of veterans shooting for comebacks.

WENT 6 INNINGS

Mossi, idled last September with arm trouble, and Narleski, who didn't pitch to a single batter last season, didn't allow the White Sox an earned run for the first six innings.

Chicago scored twice in the second, however, against the left-handed Mossi when rookie shortstop Dick McAuliffe made a wild throw to first. But Narleski, battling for a place on the Tiger roster, pitched three no-hit innings and faced the minimum nine batters.

If Narleski and Mossi make it back to form together, it will be fitting. When they were both with the Indians in the latter half of the 1950s, they formed the top left-right relief punch in baseball.

FACE RELIEVES

The Pirates, who are hoping for a first-class lefty-righty relief combination of their own in Elroy Face and Bobby Shantz, saw that old familiar face the winner Friday, although the right-hander gave up two ninth-inning runs to the Reds. He worked the eighth and ninth.

The majors' 18 teams had 10 games scheduled for Saturday, with both the Chicago Cubs and Kansas City Athletics playing with split squads.

"A Final Thought . . .
For A Precious Memory"

When considering the purchase of a diamond or other precious gem, certainly you would be most cautious to be sure of true beauty and craftsmanship. This beauty is brought out by the skill of the cutter, who takes pride in his work. In the same respect, our skilled carvers produce monumental gems by perfection in line and detail. You too, will experience pride and deep satisfaction when you select a "Hammaker Memorial."

GLOBAL WORLD SERIES: While sportscaster Mel Allen toured Israel with the sports commissioner of that country, he learned that over 100 Little League teams have been formed there, although baseball was introduced in Israel only a few years ago.

TWIRLING THE TV DIAL

Jazz composer Bobby Troup, one of the featured players in the new "Acapulco" series is an alumnus of the famed University of Pennsylvania's Mask and Wig Club. Incidentally, his wife, singer Julie London, will be seen on the opening program in a flash scene.

An actor on "The Clear Horizon," the daytime series on CBS-TV had several days off and decided to take a fast trip to Las Vegas for some fun. The day he arrived he heard an atom bomb explosive go off at the nearby proving grounds. "My gosh," he muttered to a companion, "my wife's in town."

Italian Lost Part
Because He Couldn't
Speak With Accent

Tenor Enzo Stuarti, who came to the United States from his native Rome, Italy, in the early 1940's, now speaks English so perfectly that he lost a part on "The Untouchables" because he couldn't feign a good Italian accent.

By CHARLES J. LEAVY

ANYONE who has participated in personality development sessions or read books on the subject most certainly has come away with at least one point outstanding in his mind. Every course or book on how to win friends and influence people emphasizes the importance of developing a keen interest in the other person and never hesitating to compliment him whenever possible. Just as in many other professional and personal attributes, some people are born with this quality, others, no matter how hard they try, cannot acquire it. A compliment overdone or ineptly given can have so false a ring that it develops the reverse reaction by the recipient. To win friends, one's compliments must be believable, heartfelt and natural.

"Joyful Nature"

Arlene Francis, charter member of "What's My Line?" (CBS-TV, Sundays, 10:30-11:00 p.m., E.S.T.), is one of those fortunate people who has so natural a charm and is possessed of so joyful a nature that when she compliments a person, she not only wins that person for a friend but everyone who is present.

One of Arlene's friends once summed up the aura of excitement that she lends to any situation by saying that "Arlene is the only person I know who acts as though life were the best party she ever attended."

Anyone who has been watching "What's My Line?" since it began in February, 1950, is aware of how the flashy wit and ingratiating charm of Arlene have always enhanced the proceedings. When the bindfolds are removed, and the mystery guest is revealed to the panel, you find yourself waiting to be filled in on the guest's finest qualities or recent accomplishments by Arlene. What makes Arlene's charm so ingratiating is her exceptional ability to overflow with her compliments, and at the same time, make them ring true.

Born In Boston

The daughter of portrait photographer Aram Kazanjian and his wife, Leah Davis Kazanjian, Miss Francis was born in Boston, Mass., on October 20. From childhood, she was noted for being both vivacious and voluble—two qualities that were later to prove priceless professional assets.

One episode in her early life parallels that of another well-known personality, Peter Lind Hayes. Because of his great interest in show business, he was advised by the superior of Iona Christian Brothers School that he would be better off pursuing that life than half-heartedly struggling through the academic subjects.

Entered Academy

When Arlene moved to New York from Boston with her family, she was enrolled in Mt. St. Vincent Academy. Her parents hoped that the training at this exclusive girl's school would have a quieting effect on their mischievous daughter. It was a vain hope. Like Peter Lind Hayes, her instructors encouraged her acting inclinations and tried to persuade her disappearing father to allow her to attend dramatic school.

But Arlene's father was not to be dissuaded. Instead, he sent her to Finch College. However, Arlene's ambition was not to be denied for she did manage to extract from her reluctant father a year's training at the American Theater Guild School.

Still not impressed by Arlene's persistence to follow an acting career, her father made one more attempt to change her mind. He sent her to Europe and set her up in business in a gift shop. It only took eight months for Mr. Kazanjian to agree that Arlene was no businesswoman, and the shop closed its door.

In Many Shows

Radio was the place where Arlene first made her mark. Among the many shows on which she appeared were "Amanda of Honey-moon Hill," "Mr. District Attorney," "Betty and Bob," "Big Sister" (where she met her husband, Martin Gabel), "The Jack Benny Program," "The Fred Allen Show" and "Burns and Allen." As a sideline, she did fashion commentary for news-reels.

Her side-splitting portrayal of the Russian sniper in the hit Broadway comedy, "The Dough-girls," prompted Look magazine to say that "she walked away with the show." Subsequent Broadway appearances have included "The Overtons," "The French Touch," "Little Blue Light," "Late Love" and "Once More, With Feeling."

Sharp Witticisms

The Francis reputation for rapier-sharp witticisms was first established on her radio—and later, television—show, "Blind Date." In 1953, some three seasons after she had joined the panel of "What's My Line?" she became editor-in-chief of the "Home" series. Concurrently, she also was hostess on "Soldier Parade."

Many viewers have admired the little heart necklace seen about the neck of Arlene each Sunday night on "What's My Line?"; it was presented to her several years ago by her husband, and it has been her good luck charm ever since.

Miss Francis was married to actor-producer Martin Gabel in 1946 and they have one son, Peter. The Gabels divide their time between a Manhattan apartment and a country home in Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Acapulco

Don't blink an eyelash while watching NBC-TV's "Acapulco" or you're liable to miss some famous people in the background.

The new adventure series will incorporate a "cameo" gimmick in which the camera will catch celebrities nonchalantly engaged in various activities.

John Robinson, producer of the series, feels that the personalities will weave themselves into the format naturally and logically because Acapulco, Mexico, is known as the playground of the stars.

"If you were to visit Acapulco any time during the year," says Robinson, "you would see an assortment of celebrities going about their business, relaxing in restaurants and clubs, or walking down the street. That's how we intend to present them in the series." Producer Robinson won't divulge what the stars will be doing.

"Why spoil the fun?" he grins.
